

WSN Board Code of Conduct - Summary

The WSN Board has in place a comprehensive Code of Conduct, which is regularly reviewed.

The Code of Conduct is provided to Board Members on joining the Board, and includes the following areas:

- expectations of professional and personal behaviour;
- accountability for expenditure and decisions;
- use of WSN information and resources;
- protection of WSN intellectual property;
- protocols on receipt of gifts and benefits;
- responsibilities after ceasing to be on the Board; and,
- management of conflicts of interest.
